BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Langguth was founded in 1789 by Franz Wilhelm Langguth. Today, more than 200 years later, the Langguth family owns vineyards in five different continents. The Langguth portfolio caters for a wide spectrum of consumer preferences under the original Langguth brand and also H. Sichel Sohne, traditionally one of the best known names in German wine. Langguth owns the famous Blue Nun brand, Germany's biggest export brand, as well as Erben, Germany's biggest domestic brand and is one of the top 5 wine producers in Germany.
