Product Information

Central Valley is easily the most well-known wine region in Chile, producing a huge range of varietals and wine styles. The La Casita range, translating as “Little House”, takes its name from the traditional small white and terracotta buildings studding the country’s landscape.

Tasting Notes

This delicious Merlot is deep ruby in colour with rich aromas of damson and blackcurrant. Well-balanced with juicy flavours of ripe plum and black cherry with soft tannins.
